Other statutory and legal requirements

Planning permission – This licence does not grant any planning approvals, consents or permissions under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 or any related planning legislation, retrospectively or otherwise. If the property is being used as a House in Multiple Occupation (HMO) this may constitute a breach of planning control and you should check the Authority's website to ensure the correct planning permissions are in place. This licence does not offer any protection against enforcement action taken by the Planning Department. If you are unclear on the matters outlined above, you should seek professional planning advice.

Building control – This licence does not grant any Building Control approvals, consents or permissions, retrospectively or otherwise. This licence does not offer any protection or excuse against enforcement action taken by the Building Control Department.

Property Condition – This licence is not evidence that the property is safe or free from hazards and effects. The licence does not offer any protection against criminal or civil legal action being taken against the Licence Holder or anyone else with an interest in the property, in respect of any hazards, nuisances or any other problems discovered in relation to the condition of the property.

Consumer rights & Unfair practices - The Licence Holder's attention is drawn to Office of Fair Trading's (OFT) guidance on unfair contracts in relation to their tenancies or licences. The Licence Holder must negotiate its agreements in good faith and must not carry out misleading or aggressive commercial practices. Full information should be supplied to any prospective occupier including details of this licence. Further advice can be found here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/unfair-contract-terms-cma37>

Please note - It is not the responsibility of the Authority's Selective Licensing Team to ensure the Licence Holder has complied with the above statutory requirements. If you are unclear on any of the matters outlined above, you should seek professional advice.

Please note - that any prosecutions or enforcement action or legal action taken against the licence holder or anyone associated with licence holder, or the management of the property, may affect the licence holder's 'fit and proper' status. The Authority can revoke or vary the licence at any time, giving proper statutory notice.

Notes:

- a) The Council will adopt a common sense approach and exercise its discretion reasonably and proportionately in relation to applying 'fit and proper' tests and in accordance with Section 89 of the Housing Act 2004. A licence may be revoked if the Council no longer considers the licence holder to be a fit and proper person to be the licence holder.
- b) The council will also determine whether the Landlord/Managing Agent/Licence Holder is the most appropriate person to be given a licence depending on their interest and involvement in the property.
- c) The Council will take a reasonable and proportionate approach within the licensing process on standards and conditions and will work with landlords to ensure compliance as far as reasonably possible.
