

Application to transfer a caravan site licence Caravan Sites and Control of Development Act 1960, Part 1

This application form only relates to transferring a licence for residential sites.

The licensing authority must consent to the transfer before issuing to the new owners. It may be necessary to apply to include a new 'fit and proper person' on our register before the transfer application can be processed (see page 4).

This application should be completed by the person wishing to become the new licence holder, but the consent form on page 3 will need to be completed by the existing licence holder.
